

Part Time, Occasional Supports Required for an Adult with a Developmental Disability

We are looking for an enthusiastic, positive-minded individual to support a man in his 30's with a developmental disability part time, on occasion, while he is visiting and vacationing in the Sicamous area. This man is currently active and included in a wide variety of various community employment, volunteer, recreation and social activities in his home community.

The person we are looking for must:

- (1) Have a steadfast belief and commitment to the right for all people to belong, participate and contribute to the community, and assist the individual -
  - (a) To participate in recreation and social activities and events of interest to him
  - (b) To develop and maintain friendships in the community
  - (c) Enable the individual to develop skills and competencies and demonstrate his strengths and abilities in order to be a valued, contributing member of the community.
- (2) Be able to work independently in unstructured environments and to seek out community opportunities of interest to the individual
- (3) Have excellent coaching skills – knowledge of and ability to demonstrate and support the development of skills as they relate to activities of choice, speech and language, and socially appropriate behaviors.
- (4) Have a valid Class 5 driver's license; access to a reliable vehicle
- (5) Have a recent criminal record check, current Emergency First Aid, and provide 2-3 professional references.

Guided by the goals and objectives determined in collaboration and consultation with the individual and his family, the successful candidate will collaborate with individual and family to plan activities of interest to the young man. Individual enjoys a wide variety of outdoor activities, music, socializing, and reading. More information will be shared with suitable candidates.

Attractive remuneration is offered for this position as approved by Alberta Human Services for Persons with Developmental Disabilities and you will be employed by the individual and his family. Experienced, mature individual preferred. Only candidates being considered for the position will be contacted and posting will remain active until position is filled. If you are interested in this position and have relevant qualifications, please contact mmm23@shaw.ca with brief examples of your experience or interest in assisting adults to be included in the life of their community.
