

The Community Living Society is an equal opportunity employer, committed to the principles of the Human Rights Code.

Community Support Worker

Community Living Society – Lower Mainland, BC

Job Summary

The Community Living Society (CLS) is an innovative, non-profit organization dedicated to serving people with developmental disabilities. We have been assisting individuals to live full, productive, and meaningful lives since 1978. We are leaders in providing quality Individualized Supports services, which allow people to reach their greatest potential. We have over 450 employees and serve over 260 individuals throughout the Lower Mainland and Greater Vancouver Area.

We have various exciting opportunities available in the in the Lower Mainland area! Your role as a support worker will be providing support and actively engaging a supported individual to live a fulfilling and increasingly independent life. This means you could be helping an individual to discover more of their community, learn new life-skills, finding employment, etc.

Want to learn more?

Where: Lower Mainland

Hours: Various shifts (weekdays, weekends, overnights, days and nights)

How Much? Starting wage is $18.00 per hour.

How to Qualify? The successful candidate must be patient, creative and show an understanding of the person-centered, active support approach. Prior experience in the field, being able to be active, having NVCI and or Mandt training are assets that would help you be a successful candidate in this position!

Job Requirements: Class 5 Driver's License and a First Aid Certificate

Most importantly though, you bring a positive attitude and willingness to learn!

We look forward to hearing from you!

Please note, only shortlisted candidates will be contacted though we thank all applicants for their interest.

Send your resume and cover letter to jgandham@communitylivingsociety.ca