

Make a Difference

Become a Residential Support Worker

Don't miss out on a job with meaning

- Supporting and empowering people who experience intellectual disabilities
- Creating inclusive communities where everyone is fully accepted for who they are
- Experiencing relationships that will change you

We are seeking Residential Support Workers for our Residential Services in Richmond to provide support to people with intellectual disabilities.

Responsibilities will include supporting with personal care, helping to support positive social interactions, implementing programs and life skills training, exploring vocational and volunteer opportunities as well as providing social, recreational and leisure activities within the community.

Additional Qualifications: Must display strong abilities in dealing with challenging behaviours.

Apply online at www.bethesdabc.com/careers.html

Please reference #810

Supporting and empowering people with disabilities and their families.

Working toward a future where all people live together in interdependent communities and differences in ability are embraced.