Resource Manager Needed (Full-Time) (Richmond, BC)

"In our homes, love, care, joy and spiritual well-being is practiced with the individuals, family and co-workers. And that's what makes Bethesda a great place to work."

Staff comment from the Richmond Bethesda Community

In your experience supporting people with disabilities, you see the people you support like family. That closeness and sharing that develops with a loving heart, where it is not always obvious who is helping whom anymore. You are yearning for a new role where your organizational and leadership abilities can shine. And where you can shape a workplace that overflows with grace and respect.

At Bethesda, we are all about creating community among the people we support, our staff, and our surrounding communities. We are all interdependent as we experience life together, and all valuable for the abilities we share. We know we learn from and need each other.

Do you have a heart for this vision and the skill to step into a new and challenging role? The Resource Manager position may be the next step in your journey.

JOB OVERVIEW:

As Resource Manager for one of our homes in Richmond, you will join a team where the staff, families and people receiving services have a culture of supporting, celebrating, and enriching the interconnectedness of our communities. Your job is to develop person-centred care and inclusion opportunities for the people who live in the home. You will create a workplace that supports and empowers staff to love and support these people and their families, and you will maintain administration systems to ensure effective and accountable operations.

As part of your role, you will walk alongside the people who live in the home, helping them with daily living skills, encouraging their growth and celebrating goals reached.

These is a full-time position available. It is ideal for experienced leaders who have worked directly with people who have disabilities.

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS:

- Excellent extended benefits package
- 3 weeks vacation to start

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Oversee and coordinate the health care of the four people who live in the home.
- Provide growth-oriented community inclusion opportunities for the people in the home.
- Create a welcoming, loving space where relationships among people who live in the homes, staff, families, and community partners are nourished and enriched
- Facilitate external professional supports and community partnerships
- Meet all health and safety standards in the home
- Administer budgets and report to supervisor
- Be available on-call to assist staff
- Provide training and oversight of positive behaviour supports
- Implement life skills training
- Explore vocational and volunteer opportunities for the people who live in the home
- Provide social, recreational and leisure activities with the community
