

EMPLOYMENT SERVICES MANAGER

Being a Delta Community Living Society team member means being a part of something exceptional. It means partnering with people with developmental disabilities to help them reach their full potential by living and belonging in community. It's a unique opportunity to do valuable work while being your personal best.

We have created a new role, Employment Services Manager to take our Solutions Employment program and youth services to the next level. This is a great opportunity for a passionate skilled leader interested in growing a solid employment program and developing a committed team. The Employment Services Manager role offers a fun and rewarding work environment, three weeks' vacation, full benefits including participation in the Municipal Pension Plan, and an opportunity for development and growth.

Who We Are

Delta Community Living Society is a person-centered, progressive and impactful non-profit organization. We facilitate community connections, family supports, employment opportunities, and supportive housing options with a commitment to life-long learning, choice and self-determination. We strive to be People Who Value People.

About the Opportunity

The Employment Services Manager's mandate is to plan, develop, expand and manage the employment services ensuring they are flexible and responsive to the needs, interests, talents and preferences of people with developmental disabilities, their networks and employers. The organization depends on this role to advance the customized employment approach of DCLS initiatives throughout various locations and communities, further developing inclusive community workplaces. The mandate also includes marketing and communications with employers and other stakeholders.

The ideal candidate will have experience working with people with disabilities or other under represented individuals to find meaningful and competitive employment, have a strong ability to manage and plan for growth, and solid management and leadership skills to support a dynamic service while mentoring a skilled team of vocational counsellors.

This position works Monday to Friday, 9:00am-4:30pm out of our Ladner location. Flexibility is required to support employment initiatives scheduled outside of core hours.

How to apply:

Interested applicants can submit their cover-letter and resume by July 9, 2021 to <http://www.dcls.ca/jobs>.

We thank those who apply in advance, however only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted. No phone calls please. No agencies please.
